

Troop 3:16 Family Overnighter November 6, 2009 * All Family members welcome*

The campground is located approximately 13 miles from the intersection of Copper Hill Road and San Francisquito Canyon Road behind the LADWP Power House No #1.

This is an overnighter to introduce Santa Clarita Webelos and their families to Troop 316 families. The Webelos will join one of our patrols for the weekend and work on scouting skills that they will need when they bridge.

Some of the activities planned for the weekend include working on map and compass, cooking, knots/lashings, first aid, conservation, skits and much more.

Cost: $10 per family member and includes dinner and breakfast.

What Time: Meet between 5:00 and 6:00 PM on Friday, November 6, 2009 at the San Francisquito Canyon Women's Club Campground behind the LADWP

Power House #1 (approximately 13 miles up San Francisquito Canyon Road).
There will be signs directing you to the campground
