

This years' Scout Expo 2012 is shaping up to be a spectacular day. There will be some amazing Pack Booths as well as Troop Booths. We are having some very fun corporate sponsors that are kid friendly. Exciting demos and interesting activities.

What's missing you ask? You.

We would like to personally ask every Merit Badge counselor to come and share their expertise. How cool would it be to show off to the general public and the cub scouts the cool things the Boy Scouts get to do? Finger printing, railroading, Geo Caching, Signaling, maybe even a display of Bow and Arrows and a chance to shoot one.

Please consider being part of our Merit Badge Midway at Expo this year.
